The separate existence and corporate organization of the non-surviving corporations shall cease as soon as the merger shall become effective as herein provided and thereupon the non-surviving corporations and the surviving corporation shall be a single corporation, to wit, the surviving corporation. This Agreement shall continue in effect and the merger shall become effective only if the Agreement is adopted by the members of the constituent corporations as provided in Article IX hereof. Upon such adoption, that fact shall be certified upon the Agreement of the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of each of the constituent corporations, under the seals thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, should any claim brought after the merger relate back to or have arisen prior to the merger, the claim or any expense incurred in defending such claim shall be assessed only against the properties or units which were under the pre-merger Association which incurred the loss, claim or liability.

If at any time the surviving corporation shall consider or be advised that any further assignments, conveyances or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to best perfect or confirm of record in the surviving corporation the title of any property or rights of the constituent corporations or otherwise to carry out the provisions thereof, the proper officers and directors of the constituent corporations, as of the effective date of the merger, shall execute and deliver any and all proper deeds, assignments and assurances in law and do all things necessary or proper to best perfect or confirm title to such property or rights in the surviving corporation and otherwise to carry out the provisions thereof.

ARTICLE V

The directors of both the surviving corporation and the non-surviving corporations shall serve as directors of the corporation, until their successors shall have been elected and shall qualify, or as otherwise provided in the By-Laws of the surviving corporation. If, on or after the effective date of the merger, a vacancy shall exist in the Board of Directors of the surviving corporation, or in any of the offices specified above, such vacancy may be filled in the manner provided in the By-Laws of the surviving corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

All corporate acts, plans, policies, approvals, and authorizations of the non-surviving corporation, its members, Board of Directors, committees elected or appointed by the Board of Directors, officers and agents which were valid and effective immediately prior to the effective date of the merger, shall be taken for all purposes as the acts, plans, policies, approvals, and authorizations of the surviving corporation and shall be effective and binding thereon as they were on the non-surviving corporations. Such merger shall not in itself effect any other change in such plans or rights. The employees of the non-surviving corporations shall become the employees of the surviving corporation and continue to be entitled to the same rights and benefits they enjoyed as employees of the non-surviving corporations.

ARTICLE IX

This Agreement of Merger shall be submitted to the members of each of the constituent corporations as provided by the applicable laws of the State of Florida. There shall be required for the adoption of this Agreement by (I) the non-surviving corporations - the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the membership of the corporations and by (ii) the surviving corporation - the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the membership of the corporation. In addition, consummation of the merger shall be subject to obtaining any consents or approvals determined by the respective Boards of Directors of the constituent corporations to be necessary to effect such merger.

ARTICLE X

The surviving corporation hereby agrees that it may be served with process in any proceedings for enforcement of any obligation of the non-surviving corporations as well as for the enforcement of any obligation resulting from the merger.

ARTICLE XI

This Agreement and the merger may be terminated and abandoned by resolutions of the Board of Directors of the non-surviving corporations and the surviving corporation prior to the merger becoming effective. In the event of the termination and the abandonment of this Agreement and the merger pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Article XI, this Agreement shall become void and of no further effect without any liability on the part of either of the constituent corporations or its stockholders or the directors or officers in respect thereof.

ARTICLE XII

This Agreement and Plan of Merger may be executed in counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.
