an Evangelical, Christian Ministry, with primary interest in evangelism and missionary work, involved in, and associated either directly or indirectly with, but not limited to, miscellaneous services, and other activities to be transacted with either foreign or domestic persons, firms, companies, corporations, partnerships, governments or governmental agencies, and any other business or businesses, to the full extent permitted by the laws of Florida as a nonprofit corporation. The purposes of the corporation are exclusively religious within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal, state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas, of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes.

The ministries that this church/ministry will establish include, but are not limited to:

A. To engage in, promulgate, foster, promote and otherwise cause to be affected the preaching, teaching and spreading of the Gospel, tenets, principals, concepts, admonitions, words, thoughts, projections, revelations and the whole embodiment of the Holy Bible, according to its purposes, reasons for being and existence, together with all the concepts, reasonings and precepts, and more particularly the revelation of and speaking of God, the Father and Creator of mankind.

B. To engage in the ministry to man and mankind without limitation, which ministry shall include, but not limited to, the soul and spiritual aspect, the economic and social improvement, enhancement and well-being, the psychological aspect, the physical aspect, the intellectual aspect, and all other facets and areas of the life of man and mankind and/or the human being of all ages and in all areas for the purpose of improving and enhancing the human life to the glory of God and for the human being's own enhancement, elevation and progress.

C. To foster and promote the improvement and highest attainment in the areas of economic well-being, social relationships, intellectual achievements, physical improvement and spiritual development and growth for the purpose of enabling mankind of all ages and stations, regardless of the status of each individual, to form a more realistic attitude and approach to God as the Father and Creator of all things and the continuous improvement in the relationship of human beings among themselves.

In the foregoing respects, it will not be the purpose of this church to promulgate secularistic, social and political concepts inasmuch as the purposes of the church are to promote relations with God as the Creator and Redeemer under the belief and principal that such relationship will then be reflected among all men for the enhancement and elevation thereof.

D. To regularly assemble together the members of this ministry for fellowship one with another and to worship God in Spirit and in truth; and to cooperate in the assembling of the whole body of Christ.

E. To involve every member of this ministry in its fellowships and activities and in the move of the Holy Spirit.

F. To help solving family and marital problems so that the home life of each member can be healthy and fruitful by Biblical standards.

G. To perform sacramental ceremonies such as baptism in water, marriage, dedication of infants, the celebration of the Lord's Supper and funeral services.

H. To ordain ministers and provide them with the proper credentials, to assist in the establishment and maintenance of other ministries, including churches; and to send forth missionaries for the establishment and upbuilding of the ministries, both domestic and foreign.

I. To support and encourage communication and extension of the Christian life and witness by sound and comprehensive preaching and teaching of the Holy Bible and of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to all men, both within this fellowship and elsewhere, not only by conventional modes, but also by means which will accomplish such communication, extension, teaching and preaching including, but not limited to, media of communication developed by modern technology; but not for private profit, to sponsor, participate in, conduct or engage in radio broadcasting; television broadcasting; the printing or reproduction and publication of recordings, books and other materials; the establishment and operations of a school or schools; and the holding and conducting of seminars, study groups work shops and meetings, by either resident or traveling evangelists, teachers, pastors, or other elders; to receive offerings for such purposes; and to grant aid and pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered to persons, firms and corporations for such purposes, to establish a bookstore or bookstores.

J. To establish a program to visit the prisons, with the main purpose of developing a prevention program inside the system, and to make the inmates aware of the Aids epidemic, providing Bible classes, counseling and psychotherapy that could provide the emotional and spiritual support needed to help inmates cope with the system and prepare them to be model citizens when released.

K. To help the community in providing services that will include aid to the homeless male and female, providing shelter, food, clothes, counseling that could help them integrate back into society, support groups, Bible classes and referrals to community/governmental medical agencies.

L. To help the community in general conducting seminars and conferences in Public Schools and churches for Aids prevention, and drug and alcohol prevention.

M. To help the community in providing aid to female and male HIV patients giving them shelter, food, clothes, counseling, support groups, Bible classes, referrals to community/government medical agencies and recuperation program for substance abusers. To provide comprehensive care services for children, youth, women, and families who are infected or affected by human immune deficiency HIV and to link comprehensive care.

N. A health care for homeless children and substance abusers, establishing centers that provide shelter, food, clothes, Bible classes, and education, including foreign countries.

O. Establish a program to visit the hospitals and the elderly, providing the spiritual and psychosocial support needed to help the sick.
