ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
FIRE AND RESCUE MINISTRY, INC.

The undersigned, being of legal age and competent to contract, for the purpose of organizing a not for profit Corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation, and does hereby agree and certify as follows:

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this Corporation shall be FIRE AND RESCUE MINISTRY, INC.

ARTICLE II

COMMENCEMENT OF CORPORATE EXISTENCE

This Corporation shall commence corporate existence and become effective on the date these Articles of Incorporation are filed with the Secretary of State of Florida and shall have perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE III

OBJECT AND PURPOSES

1. Object. The Corporation shall be devoted to non-denominational Christian ministry and evangelism, where Jesus Christ is presented as the answer to various types of problems. The Corporation shall also hold seminars and gatherings to present Jesus Christ and the Christian Life to people throughout the world; to teach healing for the sick through the Lord Jesus Christ, miracles and deliverance to the captive and various other speaking and training sessions whereby the Christian Life may be encouraged, strengthened and Jesus Christ exalted; to conduct all business necessary to general purposes of the business as stated above, and to do and perform such other activities as will exalt the Lord Jesus Christ.

2. General Purposes. The general purpose of this Corporation shall be to operate exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes, and in furtherance of such goals is authorized to do any or all activities which it is empowered to do under Article IV hereunder; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as allowing any activities which would jeopardize the Corporation's tax-exempt status or otherwise be inconsistent with its classification as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, or any equivalent section of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at any time.

3. Specific Purpose. The general nature of the object and purposes of this corporation shall be to establish a legal entity for Christian believers to carry out the objectives of Jesus Christ by spreading the Good News to all lands.

ARTICLE IV

GENERAL POWERS

Except as may be restricted in Articles III and V herein, this Corporation shall have all of the powers enumerated for corporations in the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, as the same now exists and as hereafter amended, and all such other powers as are permitted by applicable law, including, without limitation and only by illustration, the following:

(a) To have a corporate seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed, affixed, or in any other manner reproduced.

(b) To purchase, take, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest therein, wherever situated.

(c) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, create a security interest in, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(d) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(e) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, share or other interest, in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, association, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other governmental district, or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

(f) To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as its Board of Directors may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income.

(g) To enter into, make, receive assignments of, grant assignments of, and perform contracts of every nature and kind for any lawful purpose.

(h) To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by the Florida General Corporation Act or by other applicable law within or without the State of Florida.

(i) To elect or appoint officers and agents and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(j) to make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of the State of Florida, for the administration and regulation of its affairs.

(k) To promote, by all proper and legitimate agencies and means, education and educational institutions generally, and any and all charitable, religious, scientific and educational movements, purposes or causes; to make gifts and donations for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific or educational purposes.

(l) To dedicate to the public or to any governmental entity or other entity whatsoever for any public or other purpose any of its real or personal property or any interest therein.

(m) To transact any lawful business which its Board of Directors shall find will be in aid of governmental policy.

(n) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its general purpose.

ARTICLE V

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article IV hereinabove, nothing herein shall be construed to permit the Corporation to engage in any activity which would be inconsistent with its classification as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, or any equivalent section of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at any time. As such, the Corporation shall not allow any expenditure of any part of the net earnings of the Corporation to inure to the benefit of any member, director, or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation effecting one or more of its purposes), nor shall any member, director, or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, be entitled to share in a distribution of the Corporation's assets on dissolution of the Corporation nor shall a substantial part of the activities of the Corporation be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene (including the publication and distribution of statements) in the political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Provided, further, that if at any time the Corporation is deemed to be a Private Foundation as defined by Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended from time to time, then for so long as the Corporation is deemed a Private Foundation, the following provisions shall also be applicable:

1. The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

2. The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

3. The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

4. The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE VI

DISTRIBUTION UPON DISSOLUTION

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational organizations which are then qualified under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, or any equivalent section of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at any time.
