ARTICLE VII
Indemnification

The Corporation shall be authorized to provide indemnification to the persons and in the manner as follows:

1. To the extent not otherwise in conflict with the provisions of Article II of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (other than an action by, or in the right of, the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a member, director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

2. To the extent not otherwise in conflict with the provisions of Article II of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a member, director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if the person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made under this provision in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought or any other court of competent jurisdiction shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

3. To the extent that a member, director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in Sections 1 or 2 of this Article, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such proceeding.

4. Any indemnification under Sections 1 or 2, unless pursuant to a determination by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the member, director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct described in Section 1 or 2 of this article. That determination shall be made by (i) the Board of Directors of the Corporation by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such proceeding or if such a quorum is not obtainable, then by majority vote of a committee designated by the Board of Directors, including those Board members who are parties to the proceeding, consisting solely of two or more directors who are not at the time parties to the proceeding; or (ii) independent legal counsel selected by the full Board of Directors or by the committee; or (iii) the members of the Corporation by majority vote of a quorum consisting of members who were not parties to such proceeding or, if no such quorum is obtainable, by a majority vote of members who were not parties to such proceeding.

5. Evaluation of the reasonableness of expenses and authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible; provided however, that if permissibility is determined by independent legal counsel, then the reasonableness of any expenses shall be determined by the directors or the committee appointing such counsel.

6. The Corporation may pay expenses incurred by an officer, director or member in defending a civil or criminal proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding on the receipt of an undertaking by the officer, director, or member to repay such amount to the Corporation if he is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the Corporation. Expenses incurred by employees and agents of the Corporation may be paid in advance upon such terms and conditions that the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

7. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article are not exclusive and the Corporation may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses of any of its members, directors, officers, employees or agents under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. However, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any member, director, officer, employee or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions or omissions to act were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute (i) a violation of the criminal law (unless the member, director, officer, employee or agent had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful), (ii) a transaction from which the member, director, officer, employee or agent derived an improper personal benefit or (iii) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor.

8. Indemnification and advancement of expenses as provided in this Article shall continue as, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, to a person who has ceased to be a member, director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of heirs, executors and personal representatives of such person, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified.

9. The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who was a member, director, officer, employee or agent, or who was serving at the request of the Corporation as a member, director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him under the provisions of this Article.

10. Terms not expressly defined in this Article shall be defined elsewhere in the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or as provided in Section 617.01401, Florida Statutes (2010). The indemnification provisions of this Article are intended to be as broad as permissible by Florida law and shall be deemed to automatically incorporate any expansion of the indemnification provisions which subsequently become law.

ARTICLE VIII
Dissolution

The Corporation may be dissolved upon the adoption of a plan to dissolve in the manner now or hereafter provided in the Florida Statutes. In the event of a dissolution of the Corporation, no liquidating or other dividends and no distribution of property owned by the Corporation shall be declared or paid to any private individual, but the net assets of the Corporation shall be distributed as follows:

1. All liabilities and obligations of the Corporation shall be paid, satisfied and discharged, or adequate provision shall be made therefor;

2. The remaining assets shall be distributed to the District for a public purpose in accordance with the terms of any lease or similar agreement then in effect; provided that if the distribution of the assets to the District would require the District to obtain a certificate of need, license, or similar authorization from the Florida Agency for Health Care Administration or its successor agency or another agency of the state of Florida regulating the delivery of health care services, the distribution of the assets to the District shall be effected only upon the District's receipt of such authorization. Should the District be unwilling or unable to accept the assets of this Corporation for the public purposes herein expressed, then, under the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court of Volusia County, Florida, the assets shall be distributed to another governmental unit of the state of Florida for a public purpose, or to one or more organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as determined in the plan of dissolution adopted in accordance with law and in the manner set forth above in this Article VIII, to be used to accomplish the purposes for which the Corporation was organized. Under no circumstances shall any of the assets of this Corporation upon dissolution be distributed to any private individual.

ARTICLE IX
Bylaws

The Bylaws of the Corporation shall be made and adopted by, and may be altered, amended, or repealed by, the Board of Directors, as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X
Amendment of Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation

Amendments to these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by the Board of Directors at a duly called meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, provided that the notice of meeting contains a full statement of the proposed changes, and then adopted by resolution of the sole Member. Nothing in this Article X shall be deemed to prevent the sole Member from amending these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation without an act of the Board of Directors.
