ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
JERICHO SCHOOL FOR CHILDREN WITH AUTISM, INC.
a Florida not-for-profit corporation

FILED
55 JUL -7 PM 3:31
JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE 1
NAME

The name of the corporation is JERICHO SCHOOL FOR CHILDREN WITH AUTISM, INC. (the "Corporation"), whose principal place of business is 655 West Eighth Street, Jacksonville, Florida 32209.

ARTICLE 2
DURATION

The term of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE 3
PURPOSES, LIMITATIONS AND DISSOLUTIONS

Section 3.1 Purposes. The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Revenue Law (the "Code"), and its primary purpose is to establish, operate and promote a school dedicated to the education and training of children having the diagnosis of Pervasive Developmental Disorder or Infantile Autism.

Section 3.2 Limitations. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 3.1 of this Article. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; or (b) by any organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Section 3.3 Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall distribute the assets of the corporation in accordance with applicable law, and to the extent not inconsistent therewith shall, after paying or making adequate provision for the payment of the liabilities and obligations of the corporation, and after the return, transfer, or conveyance of assets which are held by the corporation under a condition requiring their return, transfer or conveyance by reason of dissolution, shall distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes and having its or their principal place of business in Duval County, Florida, as the board of trustees shall determine; provided, however, that any organizations to which assets are distributed pursuant to this paragraph shall, at the time, qualify as an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE 4 POWERS

Subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth in Article 3, the corporation shall have and may exercise all powers, rights and authorities as are now or may hereafter be granted to corporations not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, including but not limited to the power, right and authority to elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require and allow them reasonable compensation; to make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage and pledge of all or any of its property, franchises or income; to conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise its powers in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States or any foreign country; to purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise, or bequest or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated; or acquire, enjoy, utilize and dispose of patents, copyrights and trademarks and any licenses and other rights or interest thereunder or therein; to sell, convey, mortgage, grant security interest in, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets: to purchase, take, receive, subscribe for or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise dispose of and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares and other interests, in or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States, or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof; to lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loans or invested; to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, educational, scientific or other similar purposes; and to exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized, including the power to make guaranties when deemed by the board of directors to be in furtherance of such purposes or purposes.
