ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

TRUE PENTECOSTAL COMMUNITY TEMPLE, INC.

A FLORIDA NOT FOR PROFIT CORPORATION

FILED
96 APR 26 11 3 20
TALLAHASSEE

ARTICLE I

These Articles of Incorporation are signed and acknowledged by the incorporator for the purpose of forming a Florida not for profit corporation on a non-stock basis under the provisions of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE II: NAME AND ADDRESS

The name of this corporation is TRUE PENTECOSTAL COMMUNITY TEMPLE, INC. Its address is 3602 Brophy Boulevard, Cocoa, Florida 32926.

ARTICLE III: PURPOSES

The general purposes for which this corporation is organized are exclusively religious and charitable within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on:

(a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax code; or

(b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

The corporation shall further function and operate as a Florida not for profit corporation specifically for the following purposes and with the following objectives:

ARTICLE IV: POWERS

The corporation shall have the power to:

1. Have succession by its corporate name for the period set forth in its articles of incorporation.
2. Sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person.
3. Adopt and use a common corporate seal and alter the same; provided, however, that such seal shall always contain the words "corporation not for profit."
4. Elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require.
5. Adopt, change, amend and repeal By-Laws, not inconsistent with law or its articles of incorporation, for the administration of the affairs of the corporation and the exercise of its corporate powers.

6. Increase by a vote of its members cast as the By-Laws may direct, the number of its directors, managers, or trustees so that the number shall not be less than five nor more than twenty.
7. Make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations and secure any of its obligations by mortgage and pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, or income.
8. Conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or any foreign country.
9. Purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise, or bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.
10. Acquire, enjoy, utilize and dispose of patents, copyrights, and trademarks and any licenses and other rights or interests thereunder or therein.
11. Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property or assets.
12. Purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares and other interest in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States, or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district, municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof.
13. Lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

14. Make donations for the public welfare or for religious, charitable, scientific, education, or other similar purposes.
15. Have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.
16. Merge and consolidate with other corporations, both for profit and not for profit, domestic and foreign, provided that the surviving corporation is a corporation not for profit.

ARTICLE V: PROHIBITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

At any time during which the corporation is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code ("I.R.C."), it shall not:

(a) Engage in any act of "self-dealing" as defined in I.R.C. Section 4941(d), which would give rise to any liability for tax imposed by I.R.C. Section 4941(a);

(b) Retain any "excess business holdings," as defined in I.R.C. Section 4943(c), which would give rise to any liability for tax imposed by I.R.C. Section 4943(a);

(c) Make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of I.R.C. Section 4944, so as to give rise to any liability for tax imposed by I.R.C. Section 4944(a);

(d) Make any "taxable expenditures," as defined in I.R.C. Section 4945(d), which would give rise to any liability for tax imposed by I.R.C. Section 4945(a);

(e) During the period it is a "private foundation" as defined in I.R.C. Section 509, the corporation shall distribute, for the purposes specified in its articles of organization, for each taxable year, amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for tax imposed by I.R.C. Section 4942(a).

ARTICLE VI: SCOPE OF OPERATIONS

The territory in which the operations of the corporation are principally to be conducted is the United States of America and its possessions.

ARTICLE VII: COMPENSATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON DISSOLUTION

No officer or member of the board of Directors of the corporation shall receive or be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operation of the corporation, except actual expenses to or on behalf of said corporation, if authorized by the board of directors. A director or officer may be an employee of the corporation and may receive a salary therefor.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any further United States tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as such court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VIII: LOCATION AND RESIDENT AGENT

The location of the corporation is in the City of Cocoa, County of Brevard, State of Florida. Its principal office shall be located at 3602 Brophy Boulevard, Cocoa, Florida 32926. The name and address of its initial Resident Agent in Florida is Charlie Kimbrough, 3602 Brophy Boulevard, Cocoa, Florida 32926.
