The Articles of Incorporation shall never be construed or amended to permit the Corporation to make distributions to organizations or for purposes which diverge from the purposes stated in this Article THIRD.

FOURTH: The Corporation shall have the power to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon not-for-profit corporations, including but without limitation thereon, to solicit and receive gifts, devises, bequests and contributions, in any form, and to use, apply, invest, and reinvest the principal and/or income therefrom or distribute the same for the purposes set forth in Article THIRD hereof.

FIFTH: No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to the Corporation's directors or officers or to private individuals, but the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article THIRD hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except to the extent authorized by Section 501(h) of the Code and provided the Corporation has made the appropriate election under that section), and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(e)(2) of the Code; or (c) by a corporation organized under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

SIXTH: It is intended that the Corporation shall be a private foundation within the meaning of Sections 509 and 4942(j)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, and the Corporation, as long as it shall be such a private foundation, shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to be subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code and shall not engage in any of the following acts:

1. Any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code;
2. Retaining any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code;
3. Making any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code; or
4. Making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

SEVENTH: Corporate existence shall commence on the date of filing of these Articles of Incorporation. The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

EIGHTH: In the event of dissolution of the Corporation, no distribution of any of the property or assets of the Corporation shall be made to any director, trustee, officer or employee of the Corporation, or to any other private individual, and the Board shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation, as described in Article THIRD hereof, in such manner, to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) and either of Sections 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) of the Code, as the Board shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

NINTH: The Corporation shall not have or issue shares of stock or pay dividends. The authority for all affairs of the Corporation shall be in a Board of Directors who shall have and may exercise all the powers of the Corporation as permitted by federal law, Florida state law, these Articles of Incorporation, and the Bylaws of the Corporation as from time to time in effect. The names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial Board of Directors of the Corporation until the first annual meeting of the Members and the election and qualification of their successors are as follows:

Name	Address
John Wm. Galbraith	One Beach Drive, #1802 St. Petersburg, Florida 33701
