Article IV Manner of Election of Directors

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed is:

The FAIE State Chair will serve a term of four years: one year as Chair Elect, two years as Chair concurrent with the two year term as Florida State Representative to NAFSA Region VII, and one year as Past Chair. The State Chair will begin the term of office in the fall of even numbered years. Change of leadership will occur at the annual NAFSA Region VII conference.

The FAIE Chair Elect will serve a term of one year before becoming FAIE Chair. The FAIE Chair Elect will be elected by majority vote of the FAIE membership during the Florida State Meeting at the NAFSA Region VII Conference in odd numbered years. Candidates for election to Chair Elect will be identified by the FAIE Chair, members of the Executive Board, and the FAIE membership at large prior to the election. Candidates may also be nominated from the floor prior to the election (amended 10.26.97).

The FAIE State Past Chair will serve a term of one year following the three previous years as Chair Elect and Chair.

FAIE District Coordinators will serve terms of two years. District Coordinators for Miami, Tampa, and Orlando will begin their terms of office in even numbered years (with the State Chair). District Coordinators for Jacksonville East and Jacksonville West will begin their terms of office in odd numbered years (with the Chair Elect), except for the terms of office coincident with the adoption of these by-laws. District Coordinators may serve no more than two consecutive terms. The District Coordinators will be appointed by the FAIE Chair upon the recommendation of the Executive Board which is comprised of the FAIE Chair, FAIE Chair Elect, FAIE Past Chair, and FAIE District Coordinators.
