ARTICLE III. SPECIFIC PURPOSES

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes, including, for such purposes,
the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. The Corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit or financial gain, and no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall be distributable to, or inure to the benefit of its members, trustees, directors or officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of, and in effecting, one or more of its purposes. This Corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(a) The specific purposes for which this Corporation is organized and operated shall include, but not be limited to evangelization and the dissemination of the good news of Jesus Christ to others, worldwide, through; the development and support of international and domestic missionary efforts; promoting and conducting Christian seminars, radio, television and musical concerts; publishing, printing, binding, buying, selling and distributing Christian literature, magazines, pamphlets and recordings; sporting and athletic events and clinics at which the gospel message is proclaimed; training and discipleship; the promotion of spiritual growth and development; and presentation of a missions-oriented, biblical world view to the Church throughout the world.

(b) Subject to the limitations set forth above, the Corporation shall have all of the general powers set forth in Chapter 617 Florida Statutes, together with the power to solicit and receive grants, bequests and contributions for the Corporate Purposes.

(c) The duration of this Corporation is to be perpetual.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (1) A Corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax code, or (2) A Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any other corresponding provision of any future federal tax code.
