ARTICLE II

ARTICLE III

The general purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

1. To engage in or transact any lawful business for which Corporations may be incorporated under applicable statutes or rules of law and engage in and transact any lawful business not specifically prohibited by statute or rule of law.
2. To do such other things as are incidental to the foregoing or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE IV

shall serve until a successor is appointed or elected in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation. Officers of the corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation is authorized to issue is 1,000 shares of common stock. Such shares shall be of a single class of common stock and shall have a par value of $1.00 per share. No shareholder, as such, shall be liable for any debt or obligation of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII

The names and addresses of the incorporators, subscribers, and directors are: Francisco Gabor, 2001 Highway 78 West, Buckhead Ridge, Florida 34974.

ARTICLE VIII

1. The corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he was or is a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith or in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding if he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. However, with respect to any action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, no indemnification shall be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged liable for one or more of intentional tort, negligence, or misconduct in the performance or non-performance of his duty to the Corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the Court in which such action or suit was brought determines, on application, that despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity in view of all the circumstances of the case. Determination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not in itself create a presumption that the party did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. Indemnification hereunder may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit, or proceeding, on a preliminary determination that the director, officer, employee, or agent met the applicable standard of conduct and on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, or agent to repay such amount, unless it is ultimately determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.

2. The Corporation may also indemnify any director, officer, employee, or agent who has been successful on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding, or in the defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against all expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of an independent determination that such director, officer, employee, or agent meet any appropriate standard of conduct.

3. The indemnification provided for herein shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

4. In addition to the indemnification provided for herein, the Corporation shall have power to make any other or further indemnification, except an indemnification against gross negligence or willful or intentional misconduct, under any resolution or agreement duly adopted by a majority of disinterested directors, or duly authorized by a majority of stockholders.

5. If any expense or other amounts are paid by way of indemnification, otherwise than by Court order or action by the Stockholders, the Corporation shall, not later than the time of delivery to the Stockholders of written notice of the next annual meeting, unless such meeting is held within 30 days from the date of such payment, and, in any event, within 60 days from the date of such payment, delivered by mail to each Stockholder of record, a statement specifying the persons paid, the amounts paid, and the nature and status at the time of such payment of the litigation or a threatened litigation.

ARTICLE IX

All of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation may be made subject to restrictions on their transferability or other restrictions by Agreement between the holders of such shares of the Corporation, in the event that there shall be more than one Shareholder and the parties (Shareholders) so agree. In the event that such an Agreement is created, a copy of such Agreement shall be kept on file with the Secretary of the Corporation, and shall be subject to inspection by Stockholders of the corporation at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice.

ARTICLE X

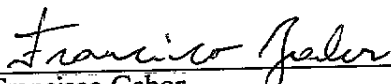

The corporation reserves the right to amend these Articles, together with any amendments hereto, at any time hereafter.
