To Whom It May Concern:

On June 19, 2000 I received the letter from you referencing a letter (enclosed) that I had previously sent you showing a change in the officers of our corporation. You sent me a letter with an enclosed form for dissolution of the corporation. We have not dissolved. We are a husband and wife owned corporation which was mistakenly set up in only one name instead of both. I have now enclosed a check for the $35.00 which I am think that I am supposed to send you. I do need a copy of the change so I can forward this on to the Division of Workman's Comp., but I don't know how many pages it will be to pay for it. Please advise me of the cost.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please feel free to contact me at the above referenced number if you have any questions or concerns about this matter. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Steven L. Caputo
Owner

RE: Wire Nuts Electric of So. Fla, Inc.
EC 1097 – Monroe County, FL
Letter No. – 800A00004497 – dtd 1/31/2000

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that "Article 5 – Officers" of our Articles of Incorporation were set up incorrectly. In an effort to correct this error, we have had a meeting and have corrected the problem. I have enclosed a copy of this meeting along with this letter. This corporation is a 50/50 partnership between myself and my wife, Marni Caputo.

This notice was not sent to you sooner, as we did not know that this needed to be done, and only found out about our error when we filed the correct workers comp paperwork and were advised that nothing was filed with the state. We would appreciate it if you would correct your records accordingly. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Steven L. Caputo
