To Whom It May Concern:

I recently received the notice that $550 is due for my 2001 Uniform Business Report filing fee.

This is my 1st year in business, so I called to find out if this is an annual or one time fee. In talking with a representative, I learned that the actual fee is $150 per year and what I received was a second notice with a late fee.

Please believe me, I never received the original notice concerning the filing. Your representative advised me to send in the $150 today and to ask for the $400 late fee to be waived. If at all possible, waiving the fee would be greatly appreciated!

The notice that I recently received was sent originally to our street address and then forwarded to our actual mailing address, which is our PO Box. The first notice was most probably returned to you because we do not receive mail at our street address and no forwarding order to the PO Box was on file at that time.

I have filled in the change of mailing address on the report, so I should have no trouble receiving correspondence in the future.

Your help is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

David E. Taylor
