To Whom it May Concern,

We recently received a 2nd notice from your office for our corporate renewal. We never received a first notice. We recently moved and was having a problem with our mail being forwarded, and this could be where the problem lies. We are enclosing our check for $150 and asking for an abatement of penalties because this was our first year of being incorporated and we were not aware of the filing requirements. Now that we know the procedure, we will be sure to file timely in the future. Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dan Brendel, Pres.
