company's objects; to open stores, offices or agencies throughout the United States or elsewhere, or to allow or cause the legal estate and interest in any properties or business acquired, established or carried on by the company to remain or be vested in the name of or carried on by any other company formed or to be formed, and either upon trust for or as agents or nominees of this company, and to manage the affairs to take over and carry on the business of any such other company formed or to be formed, and to exercise all or any of the powers of such company, or of holders of shares of stock or securities; to purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any persons or company, carrying on any kind of business which this company is authorized to carry on; to enter into partnerships or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concessions, joint ventures, or cooperate with any person which this company is authorized to carry on; or any business or transaction capable of being conducted, so as, directly or indirectly, benefit this company.

4. To lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such person and upon such terms and conditions as this corporation may think fit, and in particular for the purpose of undertaking to build or improve any property in which this corporation is interested as tenants, builders or contractors.

5. To conduct a general brokerage agency and commission business for others in the purchase, sale and management of real estate or personal property for others and negotiating loans thereon.

6. To purchase and sell for others personal property, stocks, bonds and notes and to negotiate loans thereon for others.

7. To manufacture, purchase or otherwise acquire, own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of, to invest, trade, deal in and deal with goods, wares and merchandise, and real and personal property of every class and description.

8. To acquire and pay for, in cash and otherwise, stocks and bonds of this corporation, the good will, rights, assets and property, and to undertake or assume the whole or any part of the obligation or liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation.

9. To acquire, hold, use, sell, assign, lease, grant license and privileges, inventions, improvements, and processes, copyrights, trademarks and tradenames, relating to or useful in connection with any business of this corporation.

10. To guarantee, purchase, hold, vote, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock of or any bonds, securities, or evidence of indebtedness created by any other corporation or corporations organized under the laws of this state or any other state, country, nation, government, and while the owner thereof, to exercise all of the rights, powers and privileges of ownership.

11. To issue bonds, debentures or obligations of this corporation from time to time, for any of the objects or purposes of the corporation, and to secure the same by mortgage pledge, deed or trust, or otherwise.

12. To purchase, hold, sell and transfer the shares of its own capital stocks; PROVIDED, it shall not use its funds or property for the purchase of its own shares of capital stock which such use would cause any impairment of its capital; and PROVIDED FURTHER, that shares of its own capital stock belonging to it shall not be voted upon directly or indirectly.

13. To have one or more offices to carry on all or any of its operations and businesses and without restrictions or limit as to amount, to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of real and personal property of every class and description in any of the states, districts, territories, colony or country.

14. Specifically, to operate a management company in Citrus County and elsewhere in the State of Florida.

15. In general, to carry on any other business in connection with the foregoing, whether manufacturing or otherwise and to have and exercise all the powers conferred to the laws of Florida upon corporations, and to do any or all of the things above set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do.

16. To transact any or all lawful business.

The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation.

The above and foregoing businesses enumerated are intended as illustrative and not restrictive, and this corporation shall have the power to handle such other business or businesses, either in its own behalf or as agent or broker for others, and shall further engage in any or all like or kindred businesses which may be necessary or profitable in conjunction with the businesses above enumerated; and generally shall have and exercise all powers, privileges, and immunities or businesses of like kind and nature incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida, and shall enjoy the privileges and immunities pertaining to incorporators under the laws of the State of Florida.
