Dear Secretary of State, Katherine Harris or to whom it may concern,

I was informed that I was to file this report in January when I inquired why it was a $550.00 fee instead of $150.00. I never received the UBR until just a few weeks ago after I returned from an overseas vacation. I called your department and asked what I could do and was told to send a letter explaining that I had not received a URB in January but in June and to send the payment for $150.00 instead of $550.00 with the report. I hope this fulfills our obligations at this time.

Sincerely,

Ioan Avram
