Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing this letter to you on behalf of and at the direction of the above-referenced taxpayer whom asked me to write this letter to you regarding the late filing of her 2003 Uniform Business Report. The purpose of this letter will be to beg the state for a little leniency as Ms. Kays whom is the President/Officer of the above-referenced corporation never remembers receiving this report in the mail and therefore feels that she should not be penalized for late filing.

In closing, please find the UBR for 2003 with the original filing fee of $150.00. We hope based on the following that the state will grant us this request and treat this report as being filed timely. We Thank You in advance for your consideration in this matter.

Respectfully Yours,

Joe Miller
