Dear Sunbiz,

I have a company called Royale Jade Trading Corporation. It is a for profit, although it hasn't done any business or made any money. I would like to keep it though for future possibilities.

My girlfriend who also has a company, directed me to your website today, as this is my first company I did not know that one must file this form yearly. My girlfriend said that we are supposed to receive a form each year to fill out and send back to you.

I have printed this form from my computer as I did not receive my registration forms. Would you please make an amendment to my address as listed below as I have this same problem of not receiving my mail correctly from other people as well. I live in a split house and unfortunately there is a lot of tenants coming and going. I often get mail from the other upstairs neighbors, and people that have since moved and they get mine. I found two letters this week that had my address on it yet someone had written in red writing on the letter "Wrong Address"? Indicating they were dropped off by the mail person incorrectly to begin with!

Please find enclosed my cheque for $150. I have seen on the page I have filled out there is a late fee, which I have not sent as I dont have that much money. Plus I have not received my forms to begin with. If in the case I would still have to pay the late fee, even though I have not recieved my forms, would you please let me know as soon as possible, as I will need to have the $150 sent back to me. As I am not able to make this large late fee payment as well. My phone number is (305) 759-8178

Here is the amendment that I hope will make a difference with any future correspondence. Although I am planning to move to a better neighborhood this year, at which point I shall notify you of this address change.

Thank you very much for your time and help, it is much appreciated.

Your Sincerely,
