Subject: TAYRONA PRODUCTIONS, INC.

After talking to Mrs. Ruby Dunlap about the problem we had with the documentation for renewing the 2003 filing of Tayrona Productions, I am writing to you again to resolve this matter. We had sent our documents on time with the check of $150.00 for the filing. After that, I went away out of the country and return toward the end of September 2003. On October, I called about this matter due to the letter of dissolution I discovered on the stacks of mail I had. I called your office regarding a letter you sent us dated May 14, 2003 that explained you had received our documents on time and the check, but we missed filling one of the boxes which was an honest mistake. I could not respond to this letter until October because I was not in the states and assumed every thing was up to date. I really would appreciate to help with this matter and waive the late fees and reinstate Tayrona Productions as I talked to Mrs Dunlap. If you have any question, please do not hesitate to contact me at any time.

Sincerely,
