To Whom It May Concern:

We are enclosing our payment of $150.00 and a copy of our past correspondence on this matter. We are composing this brief letter to explain the reason for our delay in payment.

- 1) This was our first year as a corporation and therefore we were not familiar with this document.
- 2) We filed for an extension in our taxes; later realizing this document was in a file directed to our accountant. Therefore missing the deadline.
- 3) Our reason for filing for an extension was based on the unfamiliarity and copious amounts of paperwork required by the local, state and federal agencies as a corporation. Now we know and have learned from our mistakes.

We are hoping, due to these circumstances, the fine will be cleared from our account and we promise that we will be cognizant of the deadlines for filings in the future.

Very truly yours,

Adam Levy

You can make a written request for a waiver of the late fee. Attach the request to a completed UBR, and submit with $150. The request will be reviewed, but it is not a guarantee the request will be honored. If the late fee is required, you will receive a letter advising so.

Subject: 2003 UBR Form - Mine is Late

Hello. I really wanted to try to reach a live person but heard the message about budget cuts. Sorry. I wanted to briefly explain why my 2003 For Profit Corp. Uniform Business Report (UBR) was not filed on time. I am completely at fault and realize that it is nobodys fault but mine. But my wife and I just had our first baby and I have been very scattered lately, sleep deprived, etc..... In addition to that, we filed an extention with our taxes and I put this document in my tax file that did not make it to my accountant until after this was due. Do you think there may be something that could be done to lessen the penalty for it being late. I sincerely never intended it to happen and am not a "late" person in my business. This document was completely foreign to me when I first received it, I put it away like a good little boy for discussion with my accountant. I forgot that it was in there. I hope that there is something that can be done to lessen the blow of this penalty. Thanks for your time...
