Dear Sir/Madame:

Enclosed please find the completed 2003 Uniform Business Report for J. Julian Incorporated. Our sincere apologies for submitting the report past the deadline date of May 1st. We are a newly formed Florida Company incorporated on August 28th, 2002 and have been busy learning the Florida corporate tax and business requirements. When we received the form, we put it aside amidst the confusion of getting our business set up and promptly miss-placed it. It just resurfaced yesterday while we were trying to reorganize our files and we realized it was overdue.

I have enclosed the report with a check for $150 and respectfully request that the Division of Corporations waive the late penalty, which for a small company like ours is a considerable amount of money. Although I realize failure to pay on time is our own fault and sloppy business practice, however I hope you will consider our newness as a company and the fact that we were still setting up our files and business office as a mitigating circumstance. I assure you that all subsequent filings will be made on time. If this is unacceptable, please advise us.

Respectfully,

John R. Julian
Vice President
