Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to you regarding my new client, Petlover Central, Inc. (formerly known as Planet Pooch, Inc.). It has just come to our attention that the original annual report was never filed. My clients incorporated in late 2001 and, being new to business, were unaware of the filing requirements with the State of Florida. The annual report was never received because the business was not opened when the corporation was first formed, the address of the business was new and the mail was not forwarded.

Based on this information, and the fact that this is a new business that is struggling financially in its first year of operation, we respectfully request abatement of the penalty. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Jeffrey Hahn, CPA
