Re: Uniform Business Report

I would like to sincerely apologize for the late submission of my Uniform Business Report (UBR). I will be working to correct this issue as soon as possible. I have had some personal problems stemming from my recent divorce that lead to the misplacement of these pertinent documents. At the time my wife was the one handling all administrative aspects of the bossiness. Upon our separation she took with her most business related documents, she was later advised by her attorney not to release any such documents until the divorce was final.

To date I have not received a copy of the annual report notice. Hence, accompanying his letter is a check in the amount of $150.00 and the completed forms.

Again I sincerely apologize for my tardiness.

Many Thanks

Adish Jain
