Dear Sir or Madam:

Hello, my name is Michael Smyser, Vice President of CISSR Technologies, Inc. I am writing to advise you that our CPA should have spoken to someone from your Department. Our CPA company name is APT Services, and our agent is Buzz Crabb. Unfortunately, he will be out of town until the end of this week. A little over a week ago CISSR received a letter informing us that the Application for exemption of Workmen's Comp was denied because neither I nor Thomas Hayden was on the Sunbiz website. After investigating with my CPA we found that for some reason our Annual report never made it or was not updated reflecting me or Thomas. We found out from you that Charles Dodd needed to sign the form to actually reflect the changes. On June 29th we sent the signed document to you via regular mail. I came into the office over the weekend to find the returned envelope for the lack of postage sitting on my desk. This form will hopefully make to you soon now. I first would like to apologize in advance for any inconvenience we may have caused.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "M. Smyser", is written over a horizontal line.

Michael Smyser
Vice President
CISSR Technologies, Inc.
