Dear Sirs:

Our client Oakdale Development, Inc filed their Annual Report in a timely manner on 03/29/05. However, it appears that the check and the report somehow got separated whilst in your office.

Enclosed please find a letter from you dated April 17th saying that the report could not be filed as there was no check with it. After some research, we found that the check sent with the return had not cleared the bank and wrote a letter to that effect. In response to that letter came a letter from you dated May 16th saying that you were returning said check as no report was attached to it.

Attached further is a copy of the original timely filed report, which was never returned to the client, and therefore must be with your office. Also attached is the check which was returned with the second letter from your office.

Please process the Annual Report at your earliest convenience, and we assume that there will be no late filing fees attached to this report, as the error was on your part.

If you have any questions, give us a call at the number above.

Sincerely yours,

Wayne Smalley
