ARTICLE XI

PROCEDURE IN CASE OF DEADLOCK

In case of deadlock in any decision to be made by the Board of Directors and/or the shareholders, no director or shareholder shall seek dissolution of the corporation, but, instead, the dispute shall be submitted for decision to a panel of three persons who are either attorneys or certified public accountants, authorized to practice in Florida; two of such persons shall be selected, one each, by the parties in deadlock; the third shall be chosen by the two persons selected by the parties in deadlock. If any party refuses to appoint the attorney or certified public accountant the other party may petition the Miami-Dade County Bar Association and/or the Miami-Dade County CPA Association, to nominate, in the stead of the non-nominating party, an attorney or certified public accountant, and the attorney or any certified public accountant so nominated shall be considered as nominated by the party or parties which have refused or neglected to nominate pursuant to this Article. The parties in deadlock shall have thirty days, from the date of the deadlock, to nominate the attorney or certified public accountant, pursuant to the foregoing.

The Decision of this panel shall be binding on the corporation, its directors, officers, and shareholders and shall be considered the act of the board of directors
