I called in reference to the letter I received in the mail that my signature was not sufficient as a signature for my Incorporation Application. I explained to the person I spoke to on the phone that this was my legal signature and she instructed me to write a letter to that effect. I am attaching a copy of my driver's license as well to show my signature. Please process the application as quickly as possible as we have been waiting for this to be able to sign the lease for our new facility. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Katrina Yanes Ramos
