ARTICLE VIII

SUB-CHAPTER S CORPORATION

Upon expansion and the financial viability of this incorporation, the incorporation may elect to be an S Corporation, as provided in Sub-Chapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

8.1 Upon the acceptance of members and shareholders, the shareholders of this incorporation may elect and, if elected, shall continue such election to be an S Corporation as provided in Sub-Chapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, unless the shareholders of the Corporation unanimously agree otherwise in writing.

8.2 If this incorporation should decide to make the election to become an S Corporation, none of the shareholders of the Corporation, without the written consent of all the shareholders of the Corporation shall take any action, or make any transfer or other disposition of the shareholders' shares of stock in the Corporation, which will result in the termination or revocation of such election to be an S Corporation, as provided in Sub- chapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

8.3 Once the Corporation has elected to be an S Corporation, each share of stock issued by this Corporation shall contain the following legend:

"The shares of stock represented by this certificate cannot be transferred if such transfer would void the election of the Corporation to be taxed under Sub-Chapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended."

ARTICLE IX

REGISTERED OWNERS

The corporation, to the extent permitted by law, shall be entitled to treat the person in whose name any share or right is registered on the books of the incorporation as the owner thereto; for all purposes, and except as may be agreed in writing by the corporation, the corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such share or right on the part of any other person, whether or not the incorporation shall have notice thereof.

ARTICLE X

BYLAWS

The President of the incorporation shall have power, without the assent or vote of the shareholders, to make, alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the incorporation.

ARTICLE XI

AMENDMENT

The incorporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or in any amendment hereto, or to add any provision to these Articles of Incorporation or to any amendment hereto; in any manner now or hereafter prescribed or permitted by the provisions of any applicable statute of the State of Florida, and all rights conferred upon shareholders in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment hereto are granted subject to this reservation

ARTICLE XII

INDEMNIFICATION

The incorporation shall indemnify a director or officer of the incorporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of the incorporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding.

The incorporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the incorporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the board of directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the officers of this incorporation.

The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of the incorporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the incorporation's request while a director, officer, employee or agent of the incorporation, as the case may be, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic incorporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the incorporation.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
J & J JANITORIAL SERVICES INCORPORATED

The incorporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the incorporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding.

The incorporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee or agent of the incorporation, whether or not the incorporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law.

All references in, these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the incorporation or the ability of the incorporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner.

If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee" and "agent" shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.
