ATTACHMENT-ARTICLE THREE CONTINUED

Article Three: The purpose of this corporation is to provide and assist in providing self-help legal services and to arrange for in-court representation for Global Reach Law Center (GRLC)'s clients through attorneys affiliated and selected by the firm in the following areas:

1. Criminal Case Review
2. Presentencing Matters
3. Post-conviction Rev
4. Appellate Research Work
9. Divorce Petitions
5. Immigration Services
6. Business Incorporation
7. Tax Filing Assistance
8. Personal Injury Evaluation
10. And other civil and family Matters

(a) To carry out the above objectives, the firm will develop relationships with various law firms throughout the United States and abroad, and will keep profiles of competent attorneys for references and selections for in-court representation of GRLC's clients.

(b) The firm will publish a monthly "case news letter" to inform the public of new court cases and new laws that may affect activities in their community.

(c) The news letter shall be published in English and in Spanish.

(d) Global Reach Law Center (GRLC) shall provide limited free legal services in certain areas of Immigration Services, in particular to those who face deportation to totalitarian countries and who desire to seek political asylum against such deportation.

(e) Global Reach Law Center shall always be managed by an executive director who is trained in the law and able to provide and assist in providing personally some of the above services and who should develop relationships with other firms for full delivery of those services.
