I have no intention or reinstating, therefore, releasing the name for use to another entity. Is that correct?

We can't file it until you do the following:

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an administratively dissolved/revoked entity. Names of administratively dissolved/revoked entities are not available for one year from the date of administrative dissolution/revocation unless the dissolved/revoked entity provides the Department of State with a notarized affidavit stating that they have no intention of reinstating, therefore, releasing the name for use to another entity. We received your online transmitted document. However, the document has not been filed for the following:

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an administratively dissolved/revoked entity. Names of administratively dissolved/revoked entities are not available for one year from the date of administrative dissolution/revocation unless the dissolved/revoked entity provides the Department of State with a notarized affidavit stating that they have no intention of reinstating, therefore, releasing the name for use to another entity. P13000080959, 1SPEAK, INC.

OR you may respond to this e-mail stating the above.

If your business entity does not intend to transact business until January 1st of the upcoming calendar year, you may wish to revise your document to include an effective date of January 1st. If you do not list an effective date of January 1st, your business entity will become effective this calendar year and it will be required to file an annual report and pay the required annual report fee for the upcoming calendar year this coming January, which is merely weeks away. By listing an effective date of January 1st, the entity's existence will not begin until January 1st of the upcoming year and will, therefore, postpone the entity's requirement to file an annual report and pay the required annual report filing fee until the following calendar year.

To make the necessary corrections to your filing, return to our website at www.sunbiz.org and click on "E-Filing Services", and then choose the type of filing you are trying to correct. Pull down the vertical scroll bar until you see the two blocks entitled "Tracking Number" and "Pin Number," which are located on the right hand side of the page. Next, enter your tracking number and pin number. Both of these numbers are listed in the top portion of this email. Next, simply click on "update filing" to access the document you previously submitted to our office. Please disregard this letter if you have contacted our office and were advised how to correct your document online. Please allow 1-2 business days for your corrected document to be processed by this office.

If you have any questions concerning your filing please call 850-245-6052.
