The corporation reserves the right at any time and from time to time to substantially change its purposes in the manner now or hereinafter permitted by statute. Any change of the purposes of the corporation authorized or approved by the holders of shares entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation shall be binding and conclusive upon every shareholder of the corporation as fully as if such shareholder had voted therefore. ARTICLE IV

The number of shares which the corporation is authorized to have outstanding is Seven Hundred Fifty (750) shares of common, voting stock, with no par value.

proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

Determination of rights to indemnification shall be made (a) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the corporation who were not and are not parties to or threatened with any such action, suit, or proceeding, (b) by the shareholders, or (c) by the court in which such action, suit, or proceeding was brought.

The corporation may obtain and maintain liability insurance against liabilities of its directors, officers, employees, and agents, sufficient to cover its obligations under these indemnification provisions, and may obtain such liability insurance for liabilities of such persons not subject to any obligations of the corporation under these indemnification provisions.

The indemnification provided hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any agreement or vote of shareholders or disinterested directors.

ARTICLE VII

A director of this corporation shall not be disqualified by his or her office from dealing or contracting with the corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or otherwise; nor shall any transaction or contract or act of this corporation be void or voidable or in any way affected or invalidated by reason of the fact that any director is a shareholder, director or trustee, or any trust of which any director of this corporation is a trustee, is in any way interested in such transaction or contract or act, provided the fact that such director or such firm or such corporation is so interested shall be disclosed or shall be known to the Board of Directors or such members thereof shall be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action upon any such contract or transaction or act shall be taken; nor shall any such director be accountable or responsible to the corporation for or in respect to any such transaction or contract or act of this corporation or for any gains or profits realized by him or her by reason of the fact that he or she or any firm of which he or she is a member or any corporation of which he or she is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which he or she is a trustee, is interested in such transaction or contract or act; and any such director may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation which shall authorize or take action in respect to any such contract, or transaction, or act, and may vote thereat to authorize, ratify or approve any such contract or transaction or act, with like force or effect as if he or she or any firm of which he or she is a member, or any corporation of which he or she is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which he or she is a trustee, were not interested in such transaction or contract or act. Without limiting or qualifying the foregoing, if in any judicial or other inquiry, suit, cause or proceeding the question of whether a director of the corporation has acted in good faith shall be material, notwithstanding any statute or rule of law or equity to the contrary (if any there be), his or her good faith shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary by clear and convincing evidence.

ARTICLE VIII

The Board of Directors is hereby authorized to fix and determine, and to vary, the amount of working capital of the corporation, to determine whether any, and, if any, what part of the surplus, however created or arising, shall be disposed of, or declared in dividends, or paid to shareholders, and without action by the shareholders, to use and apply such surplus, or any part thereof, or such part of the stated capital of the corporation as is permitted under any rule of law or statute of like tenor or effect which is hereinafter enacted, at any time or from time to time, in the purchase or acquisition of shares of any class, voting trust, certificates for shares, bonds, debentures, notes, scripts, warrants, obligations, evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, or other securities of the corporation, to such extent or amount and in such manner and upon such terms as the Board of Directors shall deem expedient.
