Dear Sir or Madam:

As a domestic corporation of the State of Alabama, we do business in six southeastern states and hundreds of counties and cities. We make every effort possible to comply with the rules and regulations of those numerous tax jurisdictions. For some of our tax compliance such as the state business licenses, we rely on outside sources to assist us in our compliance effort. We have used C.T. Corporation Systems for a number of years and they appear to do an excellent job in helping us comply. Apparently though in Florida, they failed to keep us in compliance since 1997. We are currently bringing ourselves up to date on our Florida Uniform Business by paying those back year license fees.

We are requesting that you waive any reinstatement fees for those years we inadvertently failed to pay our state business license. Prospectively, we intend to keep watch over this license ourselves in an effort to ensure a mistake like this does not occur again. Your assistance in this matter will be greatly appreciated. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact me at (205)-324-2581 ext. 105.

Sincerely,

William W. Curlee, Controller
