To Whom It May Concern:

We are in receipt of your letter dated October 20, 2000 regarding the revocation of authority from the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations.

Upon review of this letter and your database, it appears that there was a failure to file an amendment of a corporate name change. Your database shows our former entity of CSC Artemis Inc. as the listed entity under the referenced FEI number. As such an amendment showing our corrected name has been filed along with the appropriate backup information and filing fee. Moreover, we have filed both sales and income tax reports as required therefore is the Uniform Business Report (UBR) in addition to those other filings?

The question now becomes have we, as Artemis Management Systems Inc. and not CSC Artemis Inc., filed the appropriate UBR's as required? If not, to what address were the UBR's sent? For the record, all current and future mailings of the UBR and should be forward to my attention at the address contained in this letter to ensure a proper response. Further, our official corporate address should be reflected as that show in this letter.

If you have any question please contact me at the above address and phone or via e-mail at scott_grundstrom@artemismpm.com.

Very truly yours,

Scott Grundstrom
Director, Corporate Affairs & Asst. Secretary

Dear Ms. Lewis:

I am in receipt of your recent correspondence dated May 10, 2001 regarding the return of our amendment for a name change.

As you may recall my original amendment document was signed and sent on December 5, 2000 and according to your letter was rejected for a lack of a certificate from the state of incorporation. The certificate which was sent/presumably sent with the amendment was dated October 13, 2000. However, it is of concern that our amendment request was not processed for over five months without notification to Artemis. As you can infer from the delay the certificate is now not within the requisite ninety day window for acceptance. It is my belief had the state responded within a reasonable time period the enclosed certificate could have been sent with out the time and expense of obtaining another certificate from the state of incorporation.

Given this quandary, I propose a simple and effective compromise. Enclosed is another certificate from the state of incorporation which falls within the original ninety day window of acceptability, given the initial amendment request dated December 5, 2000. Therefore, I have taken the liberty of enclosing in addition to the certificate from the state of incorporation, the original amendment form and a copy of the original check for the appropriate fee. The original check has been cashed by the state of Florida.

If you could be so kind as to process the name change given this information I would be most appreciative.

If you have any questions contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,
