- b. To acquire by purchase, subscription, or otherwise and to hold for investment, and to own, hold, sell, vote and handle shares of stock in other corporations.
- c. To have one or more offices, conduct its business and promote its objects within and without the State of Florida, in other states, the District of Columbia, the territories, possessions and dependencies of the United States, and in foreign countries, without restriction as to place or amount.
- d. To rent, lease, purchase or trade such real or personal property as is necessary to effectuate the accomplishment of its corporate purposes.
- e. To do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attaining of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the powers enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment thereto, necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of the Corporation as principal, agent, director, trustee or otherwise and, in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms or individuals to carry on any lawful business necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes or the attainment of the objects of the Corporation, whether or not such business is similar in nature to the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment thereto.
- f. To perform any other act and to exercise any other power permitted to a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, without limitation thereupon.
4. The capital stock of this Corporation shall consist of 2,500 shares of common voting stock with a par value of one dollar per share, fully paid and non-assessable. The whole or any part of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America, or in property, labor or services at a just valuation to be agreed upon by the Directors. Property or labor may also be purchased with the capital stock of the corporation at such valuation as may be fixed by the Board of Directors.
5. The amount of capital with which this corporation shall begin business shall not be less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).
6. The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.
7. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located initially at 36 Northeast 1st Street, Suite 701, Miami, Florida 33132 and subsequently at such other place as the Board of Directors may choose.

12. The following additional provisions for the regulation of the business of the Corporation and for the conduct of its affairs are hereby adopted as a part of these Articles of Incorporation:
 - a. The original subscriber of the Corporation shall have the right upon its organization to assign and deliver his subscription of stock, if any, to any other person or to firms or corporations who may hereafter become subscribers to the capital stock of the Corporation, who upon acceptance of such assignment, shall stand in lieu of the original subscriber and assume and carry out all the rights, liabilities and duties entailed by said subscription, subject to the laws of the State of Florida, and the execution of the necessary instruments of assignment.
 - b. No person shall be required to own, hold or control stock in the Corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office in the Corporation.
 - c. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation in the absence of fraud shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that one or more of the Directors of the Corporation is a director or officer of such other corporation, or holds an interest in such other corporation; nor by reason of the fact that one or more of the Directors of the Corporation may have an interest in any contract or transaction with the Corporation and each and every such person who may become a Director of the Corporation is hereby relieved from liability which might otherwise exist from thus contracting with the Corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association, or corporation in which he may be otherwise interested. Any Director may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any subsidiary or controlled corporation without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such subsidiary or controlled corporation.
