Dear Department of State:

Please find enclosed my annual report along with a check for $150.00. This is my second attempt at filing this report. Unfortunately, my option of filing online was not recognized although everything seemed to go smoothly when I filed this report on the internet in March.

I spoke with Marquita and was instructed to send in this form by mail along with a check for $150.00 and, because I have always filed on time and because the filing by internet is not perfected as of yet, I should disregard the notice asking for a $600.00 filing fee. If you have any questions on this matter, please contact Marquita at 850-245-6939.

I also understand that I should expect some sort of confirmation number in the future when filing by internet. I will be certain to look out for this from now on.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Thomas Avellino
