December 11, 1997

Dear Sir or Madam:

Marann International Corporation had a change in officers at the end of last year and a change in address as well. The only documentation I have in that regard is a copy of the minutes of a meeting held last December...please see enclosed.

As President of the corporation, I did, however, receive the Notice of Dissolution from the former corporate officer just recently. I believe that if I were in control of this corporation over a longer period of time, I would have realized that the corporation did not receive the application for annual filing. I immediately telephoned the Division and explained this problem and was advised to send in the annual fee, application and a statement to the effect that I had never received the actual application last year. This was indeed the situation and I am requesting the Division's consideration for my request to waive the penalty due to this circumstance.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Marann International Corporation
