Dear Sean,

I am writing you this letter per our telephone conversation on September 27, 1996. It is in regards to receiving a notice of administrative dissolution of revocation from your office. I finally heard back from the main office of our bank stating that the check that was written to your office on July 24, 1996, #1282, in the amount of $225.00 has not yet cleared. I am enclosing a new check as you requested, for the same amount. I will issue a stop payment on the first check, #1282.

Thank you for your assistance. Please let me know if there is anything else I need to do.

Sincerely,

Kelly Watford
