Re: Annual Report 2004
Doc #: P96000048449

Dear Officer:

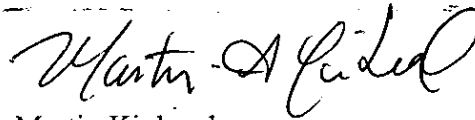

Please be advised that this year we have not received any notifications for our Annual renewal.

We don't know if been lost or you never send it. Our Company has been very busy and without any notification is very hard to maintain track of so many forms and returns to file. Today's date we still not receive any notification and by casualty and revising old documents we have realize that our annual report have not been filed.

We are writing to your Department to requests to please waive the penalties & interests assessed to our company we are sending our filing fee together with the Annual Report 2004.

Thank you for your cooperation. Please do not hesitate to contact us at the above styled address if you have any other questions.

Sincerely yours,

Martin Kinkead
President
