Dear Sir:

When I received my mail yesterday, I was so "shocked" to learn that you apparently never received my 2001 Uniform Business Report that I had mailed on April 16, 2001, with my check for $150.00 (check #4987) I immediately called my bank to find out if the check had cleared knowing that it hadn't last month but thinking that it would take time with the State. To my surprise, it was still outstanding.

Today I called your office and talked with Tyrone who advised me to write this letter. At this point, I am so sick wondering where my form and check ended up and being very much aware of the large fine for being late. I am a very small business and I work hard to keep myself self-suported. A $400.00 penalty will really create a hardship for me and my business as I continually struggle to make ends meet. As your records will show, I have always submitted my form and check on time and I am requesting that you reconsider and waive the penalty. Meanwhile I am sending you the attached with a new check for $150.00 (check # 5075).

I will anxiously await your reply...and I will send this to you certified mail in hopes that you recieve it without incident. Thank you kindly.

Sincerely,

Ruth P. Wharton, owner
