Dear Department of Corporations,

I sent in our yearly corporations tax from the renewal card i received in the mail. All that was said was sign and send in payment. That was April 21. Our annual report was not late, and was filled out and signed from the post card i was sent.

Now i receive this letter it was filled out wrong, and i owe this large late charge. My annual report was not late at all. And the little post card was filled out properly. If more information is needed on that small post card that is sent, then maybe those small post cards should be replaced with what is needed. This is really not our fault. It was paid, and filed ontime.

WENDY BERTENS
