To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you because my client as referenced above did not receive a 1999 or 2000 UBR form. Our office was able to provide him with a blank UBR form, but his wife, who was in charge of running the office, passed away May 12, 2000 (if needed, a copy of her death certificate can be provided).

It appears, after looking through her desk for pending matters, that the 2000 UBR form was filled out and mailed with a check in the amount of $150.00, but it was returned from your office (see letter, dated April 28, 2000), due to the fact that a 1999 UBR form was never filed. At the time my client's wife made a copy of the current 2000 UBR form already filled in to use for 1999, since she never received it and prepared another check in the amount of $150.00, but she didn't get the chance to send both forms and checks within the 60 days indicated on your letter.

Therefore, due to my clients circumstance, I request that you: 1) waive the additional fees for reinstatement and 2) that you accept the enclosed UBR forms for 1999 and 2000, along with the two checks originally made in the amount of $150.00 each.

In the future, please direct all correspondence pertaining to the Corporation listed above to:

Barbara Acuna 7227 N.W. 29th Ave. Miami, FL 33147.

Sincerely,

Raul Ricardo, C.P.A.
