Dear Sirs:

I recently received this noticed following my return from our vacation from MA – we go for the summer months.

I am stunned to realize that you did not receive my payment since I sent in the check on Mach 12, 2005. Check number 128. I called Bank of America today and they indicated that the check had not been cleared.

Please apply the ORIGINAL fee to the attach credit card number since our states postal service is obviously to blame. This is the first time I have had an issue sending the payment thru the postal service.

I appreciate you timely response.
