Dear Ms. Sellers:

I am enclosing your letter of April 6, 1999 together with the document and check. The identification number is reflected on their form.

We did not receive back from you the document last year. The only reason that we returned this Application for Reinstatement in this way was that we did receive that and that was the first knowledge that we had to the effect that there was any kind of problem with the return. Obviously the deposit and cashing of the check indicated to us that all was well.

We ask that you reconsider this. If this is not within your province, we want this forwarded upstream to another level of decision making.

For some reason or another we experienced considerable confusion with mailings from the Secretary of State's office last year. I don't know why this occurred, possibly there was some turmoil within the department relating to the political campaign taking place, but I must say that last year our experience was much different that I had during the past 35 years of my legal practice being involved with the office. I think that in the interest of equity that this Application should be filed forthwith. I am enclosing an additional check for $8.75 since I would appreciate you forwarding a certificate of status for this corporation.

Sincerely yours,

John C. Bierley
