Dear Annual Report Section,

I did not receive my annual report the first of this year, and because this is my first year of incorporation, I did not know of the late charge of $400.00 until I called your office the first week in June of this year, and you sent me my 1998 Annual report.

I told the lady I talked to in your office in June that there is a Allstate Insurance office across the street from my office, and sometimes my mail goes there by mistake.

If you would please waive the late charge this time I will get it in early from now on.

Thank You
David E. Hall Pres.
