Re: Faber Properties, Inc.
Med Scan Diagnostics & Imaging, Inc.
Light Essentials, Inc.
Hairhunters, Inc.

Dear Mr. Toner:

I've had several conversations with your customer service specialists over the past several weeks. They have been very helpful, and recommended that I send this letter to your attention. I hope the following explanation is sufficient for your needs.

As background, let me state the following:

- While we were doing our annual review of all the corporations for which our office is the registered agent, we discovered that there were approximately 20 corporations for which we had never received the Annual Report Forms;
- Not only did we not receive the first form, we did not receive the second one, either;
- We immediately contacted your office at 850-487-6056 and was advised that if we immediately submitted the Annual Report form (which was due by May 1, 1999), the corporations would not be dissolved;
- We were also advised that the late fee of $550 might be waived since the Annual Report Form was never received. For this reason, we are directing this letter to your attention.

Thus far we have received the following items back from our clients:

- 1999 Annual Report Form for Faber Properties, Inc., along with check #1058 in the amount of $150;

- 1999 Annual Report Form for Med Scan Diagnostics & Imaging, Inc., along with check #5026 in the amount of $150;
- 1999 Annual Report Form for Light Essentials, Inc., along with check #636 in the amount of $150; and
- 1999 Annual Report Form for Hairhunters, Inc., along with check #2909 in the amount of $150.

We understand that there are procedures to be followed, but in light of the fact that approximately 20 Annual Report Forms were never received by our office, we would truly appreciate the timely filing of these Annual Report as well as the late fee being waived.

Should you have any questions, please call me immediately.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in this matter.

VERY TRULY YOURS,
MASTRANA & CHRISTIANSEN, P.A.
