To whom it may concern, Document # P97000069007

Serengeti Services, Inc. experienced an address change in the past year, and this is the first notice I've received. I am submitting the original $150.00 filing fee and ask your consideration in waiving the late fee due to our change of address, which may be why we did not receive prior notice.

Thanks you,

Alison M. King - Pres.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- (1) What is the filing fee prior to September 13, 2002? $550.00
- (2) What is the due date?
Uniform business reports are due between January 1 and May 1 of the year following incorporation and every year after. Reports filed after May 1 are subject to a $400.00 late fee. Sixty days notice of intent to administratively dissolve or revoke will be given to all corporations that have not filed the report. Corporations that have not filed after the sixty day notice has been given will be administratively dissolved or revoked. The Division makes every effort to mail to the last known address of the corporation a pre-printed prescribed form, and again the second notice form, advising of intent to administratively dissolve or revoke the corporation. It is the responsibility of the corporation to file the uniform business report on a timely basis; failure to receive the report is not an excuse for not filing. It is important that the corporation notify the Division of any address changes immediately.
- (3) Do I receive any form of acknowledgement of the filing of the uniform business report?
The Division does not mail out any form of acknowledgement of the filing of the uniform business report unless a certificate of status is requested and paid for.
- (4) What happens if I don't file the uniform business report?
Failure to file the uniform business report will result in the administrative dissolution or revocation of the corporation and it will no longer be recognized as an active corporation.
- (5) My corporation is Sub-Chapter S, do I need to file a uniform business report?
Yes, the uniform business report fee is a filing fee, not a tax. The corporation must file a report to maintain an active corporate status.
- (6) Does the Division assign FEI numbers or determine liability for intangible tax?
No, in both cases. FEI numbers are assigned by the Internal Revenue Service. For information, call (800) 829-1040. Intangible tax questions can be answered by the Florida Department of Revenue at (800) 352-3671 (Florida only). Out-of-state callers must call (850) 922-4826 or (850) 922-7200
- (7) What is a Registered Agent, and who can be the Registered Agent?
The Registered Agent is a person or entity that has agreed to accept service of process on behalf of the corporation. Any individual or entity, with the exception of the corporation itself, may be the registered agent as long as it has a Florida street address and has signed accepting the appointment of registered agent.
- (8) This is the first notice I received, can the late fee be waived?
Yes, if the corporation did not receive the prior notice, the late fee can be waived. An officer or director would need to attach a letter to the completed report stating the corporation did not receive the prior notice. The corporation would need to submit the original $150.00 filing fee. The request must be mailed in, we regret we are unable to file UBR's without penalty on-line.
