Dear Sirs:

Please find the enclosed Corporation Reinstatement application and my business check for the amount of $150.00. I respectfully request a waiver of the full $900.00 fee for the following reasons:

My corporation papers were filed on 10/13/97. On that date my business was located at 137 Westshore Plaza, Tampa, FL. My home address was 1414 Gulf Dr., Tarpon Spgs, FL. In February of 1998, I relocated my residence to 3330 Windfield Dr., Holiday, FL. Shortly thereafter, I closed my workshop in Tampa and moved it into my home.

Although I had left forwarding addresses at both locations I never received a single notice to contact you regarding my corporation.

I must apologize for my error and admit that I am a far better jeweler than a corporate President. But I am learning. Had I more experience with these matters I would have known what I had overlooked.

The frightening aspect is that had I not filed my fictitious name application I still would not be aware of my oversight.

I ask your thoughtful consideration with regard to my inexperience. I have never done any of this before. My work and business ethic is to be honest, fair, and thorough. But it is apparent that I have dropped the ball on this one.

You have my word as a hard-working business woman and an active member of my community that this oversight will never re-occur.

If you have any questions or require more information I may be reached at 727-844-0953 or cell # 727-455-5965.

Thank you for your attention and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Kathleen St. Martin
