To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this in hopes that you will grant me grace from the $400 late fee for filing after June 5th. I received your 2ND NOTICE two weeks ago and looked through everything I had and could not remember or find a 1ST NOTICE. That doesn't mean I didn't get it I just don't seem to have it nor do I remember getting it.

I am a very small corporation, as a matter of fact I am the only person involved and the only employee. The corporation has only billed $1,500.00 total services this year and I have not taken any income. This is my first year in business so I am kind of learning as I go. Because of that I have been rather careful to at least look at everything I receive from the federal and state government and my registered agent. But I could have overlooked it and inadvertently thrown it away. I am very sorry for not responding in time and hope that this first year my late fee can be waived.

Very respectfully,

Eric G. Peil
President, Stauros Web Enterprises, Inc.
