To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is regarding the 2000 Uniform Business Report or (U.B.R.). On Friday, July 7th 2000, I received a 2000 Uniform Business Report 2nd notice. The problem that my company faced was that this was the first copy of the report that was received. When I called the department help line at (850) 488-9000 they told me that the first copy was due on May 1st, and that there is a $400.00 late charge on top of the $150.00 fee. Along with this letter are my 2000 U.B.R. and my $150.00 payment. But I do have a problem and would like to protest the $400.00 late fee since we did not receive the first notice. I am sure it is obvious that no person would rather pay $550.00 instead of $150.00 hence understanding that Mitbry Corporation did not receive a first notice. Mitbry Corporation has always been a timely company when it comes to payments, weather it is in regards to sales tax payments, company taxes, or paying our vendors. We do understand that your department probably faces a great deal of protests on late fees, but if you take a look at our records you will see that this was definitely something that we would not have been responsible for. I would appreciate a review on my case and would like to resolve this as soon as possible. Please call or write to the address and numbers above, Thank you for your time.

Sincerely

Alberto Ruiz
President
