Article VI

Duration

This corporation shall exist perpetually.

Article VII

Purposes

This corporation is organized for the purpose of transacting any or all lawful business permitted under the laws of the United States of America and of the State of Florida.

Article VIII

Preemptive Rights

Each shareholder of this corporation shall have the first right to purchase shares (and securities convertible into shares) of any class, kind or series of stock in this corporation that may from time to time be issued (whether or not presently authorized), including shares from the treasury of this corporation, in the ratio that the number of shares he holds at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares by any shareholder who does not exercise it and pay for the shares preempted within thirty (30) days of receipt of a notice in writing from the corporation, stating the prices, terms and conditions of the issue of shares, and inviting him to exercise his preemptive rights. This right may also be waived by affirmative written waiver submitted by the shareholder to the corporation within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice from the corporation. It is the intent of this provision the shareholders of this corporation not have their respective ownership interests diluted without providing each shareholder the right to purchase additional shares as they become available to keep their respective ownership interests.

Article IX

Directors

(a) This corporation shall have two (2) directors initially. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time as provided in the bylaws, but shall never be less than one (1).

(b) The name and street address of the initial directors of the corporation are:
