Dear Sirs,

I recently received from the Department of State a Second notice for payment of corporation renewal. I have been in business for twelve years here in Florida. With all the permits, licenses and taxes that are required to do business, I have never been delinquent with any one of them. As you can check with your own records you will find I have always fulfilled my responsibilities in a timely manner. Upon receipt of your notice I asked my wife if she had paid corporation renewal tax for her business. She said, "Why, when is it due?" she has not received any notices at all. Upon checking with my accountant, I found out the renewals were due May 1, 2000.

I am enclosing checks for both businesses. Even though I do not have paper work for my wife's business. Please find the necessary information for her business as well. Since we never received any notices, I am enclosing the normal $150.00 annual fee.

Cooperatively,

Harvey Frankel, Jody Frankel
